Coffee Comment

I was thrilled to read the article entitled "Coffee, Conversation & Company" in the Autumn 1996 issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. The company I work for is R. Torre and Company, and we've been producing the Torani Italian Syrups mentioned in the article since 1925. Our naturally flavored syrups have become very popular with people of all ages, especially college students across the country. We have now branched into the culinary application of our syrups and hope that Torani will become a "staple" in this category much as it has in beverages. Our web site address is www.torani.com, and we welcome recipes, questions, and comments. I'm always looking forward to the next issue of The Magazine; thank you for continuing to keep me in touch.

African Adventure

I am a Theta from the Epsilon Pi Chapter at Bucknell and, despite not being a "rah-rah" type person, I very much enjoyed my fraternity experience and continue to have very warm feelings about Theta. In fact, every time I apply for a new job (which I do with startling frequency), I wear my Theta badge. Usually it's on the inside of my suit, and, in one case, on my bra strap.

I think I will be wearing my badge, as it has always brought me a measure of confidence and good luck, daily in my new job. After seven years in banking and related fields, I have quit my job to become a volunteer in Kampala, Uganda. I will be in Kampala for one year, and I will be volunteering as an urban volunteer through an international not-for-profit organization, Visions in Action. When I get to Uganda, I will interview with several international and/or local development agencies and choose/be accepted by one of these groups. I am very excited about the opportunities and also a little scared!

As much as I am looking forward to this adventure, I am hoping for frequent reminders of home. I hope that you will publish my address so that I might hear from Bucknell Thetas, as well as any Thetas who may be interested in Visions in Action or in volunteering abroad.

Hurt and Upset

Please remove my name from the Kappa Alpha Theta mailing list. I do not wish to receive The Magazine, nor do I wish to receive any solicitation notices. I am outraged that my baby sister, Margaret, was cut from the rush process at my chapter. I gave so much of myself to Theta that I feel completely let down. It is only Theta that is missing out on a top-notch girl.

Helen Woodward, Fraternity president, replies:

I have shared your note with Peggy Jo Coker, vice-president membership, and you will hear from her in the near future. Peggy Jo is responsible for the rush efforts of all of our college chapters, and she is in a better position than I to comment on what may or may not have happened.

There is no easy resolution to the number of legacies going through rush.

Our chapters struggle with these decisions. I am very sorry that you and your sister were hurt in just such a situation. I hope that with time you will come back to Theta.

Nothing But 'Net

As a new Internet user and Theta alumna from Mizzou, I was excited to see the newest cover of The Magazine. We've got to keep up and be current!

I find e-mail so easy, and I tend to use it more often than mail or phone calls. I will check in regularly. Good job!

Lost and Found

Just a little human-interest story that I thought your readers might enjoy.

Many years ago, I sent away to The Pansy Peddler for a gold-plated small pansy pendant. I wore it constantly with the perfect gold chain. One day, it slipped off the chain as I was dressing. Even though I scoured the rug, under the dresser, and everywhere, it wasn't to be found!

Yesterday, almost two years later, my husband was raking a gravel thoroughfare in our side yard. He was using a metal rake, and he heard a clink, clink. He showed me a badly tarnished object, and I shrieked, "My pansy pendant!"

He cleaned and polished it for several long minutes and actually restored it to a lovely patina similar to the original. It is thinner (from being walked on) and slightly worn but antiques from the weather.

I am once again proudly sporting my precious pansy piece and consider the whole event a minor miracle.

Charter members of Zeta Phi gather for their first group portrait as members of Kappa Alpha Theta. They celebrated their new chapter with family, friends, and area alumnae and collegians at a special luncheon.

below The Tomovich sisters, Loretta Tomovich Monroe, Desa Tomovich, and Natalie Tomovich Milosevich, became sisters in Theta as alumnae initiates.

Welcome, ZETA PHI

On February 2, 26 collegian and seven alumnae members of local sorority Theta Alpha Phi became the charter members of the Zeta Phi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta at Pepperdine University. The Loyalty Service was held on the Pepperdine campus in Malibu, while initiation took place at the Omicron Chapter facility on the USC campus.

YOUR MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION

In the autumn of 1995, Kappa Alpha Theta began an innovative program to decrease production and postage costs of The Magazine. Each member was offered a choice—to continue to receive four issues of The Magazine each year or to receive only the larger, comprehensive spring issue.

Each year, you have the option to change your annual or quarterly subscription. If you are currently happy with the frequency with which you receive The Magazine, you need to do nothing. If you would like to receive The Magazine more or less frequently, please fill out and return the coupon on the left.

This is an important notice for Thetas initiated between January 1, 1988, and January 1, 1989. You have been receiving four issues of The Magazine each year. If you do not return the coupon with the first box checked, you will automatically receive only the spring issue. ■

Kappa Alpha Theta recently launched its member recruitment/extension campaign, using the theme "Together Thetas." The goals of the program are to provide assistance to college chapters in their recruitment efforts and to promote Theta in a positive, professional manner to campuses where we hope to start new chapters.

In order to select materials that would be most beneficial and useful to college chapters and most appealing to college women, we asked our college members to help us develop a priority list. For phase one, we developed brochures, banners, posters, name tags, napkins, T-shirts, and balloons. We plan to add various materials to the campaign over a three-year period.

The central word of our theme, Together, implies unity and sisterhood. Together is also a word often used to describe Thetas. Intelligence, ability, involvement, balance, style — the Theta woman is definitely together!

SUPPORT

Academic support was a key reason our four Founders came together, and high scholastic achievement continues to be Kappa Alpha Theta's number-one aim.

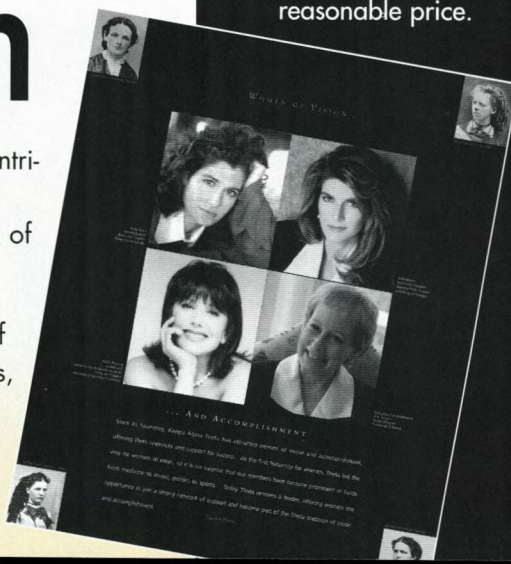

The Together Thetas campaign combines images from Theta's rich past with those of today's college women.

vision

Many Thetas have gone on to make significant contributions in government, arts and entertainment, science, medicine, and business, and we're proud of all of them.

Posters featuring these famous alumnae are part of the materials available: Amy Grant, Marlo Thomas, Nancy Kassebaum, and Julie Moran.

Providing T-shirts for new member classes as they join Theta is still a common tradition among all college chapters.

The Together Thetas T-shirt can be personalized with a chapter name, date, and theme for a reasonable price.

MEN ARE FROM MARS, Women Are from Venus

A Practical Guide for Improving Communication and Getting What You Want in Your Relationships
JOHN GRAY, Ph.D.

One of the common measures of happiness today is the quality of our relationships.

Would you agree with this statement? If your response is yes, read on as we explore how mutual understanding of the basic difference between the sexes can promote better relationships.

Many writers have taken up the topic of gender differences, but none quite as successfully as Dr. John Gray, who wrote Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. His book has been a best-seller for more than four years, and now his relevant and helpful ideas are the subject of a seminar that I teach. I am one of thirty seminar facilitators across the country. I thought that the readers of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine might be interested in some of Gray's ideas that can enhance your own relationships with "Martians."

By Angie Goddard, ΔΣ

Men Are From Mars...

Understanding the ways women and men communicate

Once upon a time, "Martians" and "Venusians" met, fell in love, and had happy relationships together because they respected and accepted their differences. Then we came to Earth and amnesia set in. We forgot that we come from different planets.

This metaphor is intended to remind us that if we can appreciate differences and navigate through them, then we can have mutually fulfilling relationships. Of course, all men are not exactly alike, and neither are all women. However, there are sets of characteristics in each gender that we are likely to recognize. What follows is an explanation of the needs and communication patterns of women on the one hand and men on the other.

Venusians and Martians experience love differently. Venusians experience love through caring, understanding, and respect. Martians experience love through trust, acceptance, and appreciation. Venusians study people and relationships; Martians study things. Venusians feel motivated when they feel cherished; Martians are motivated when they feel needed.

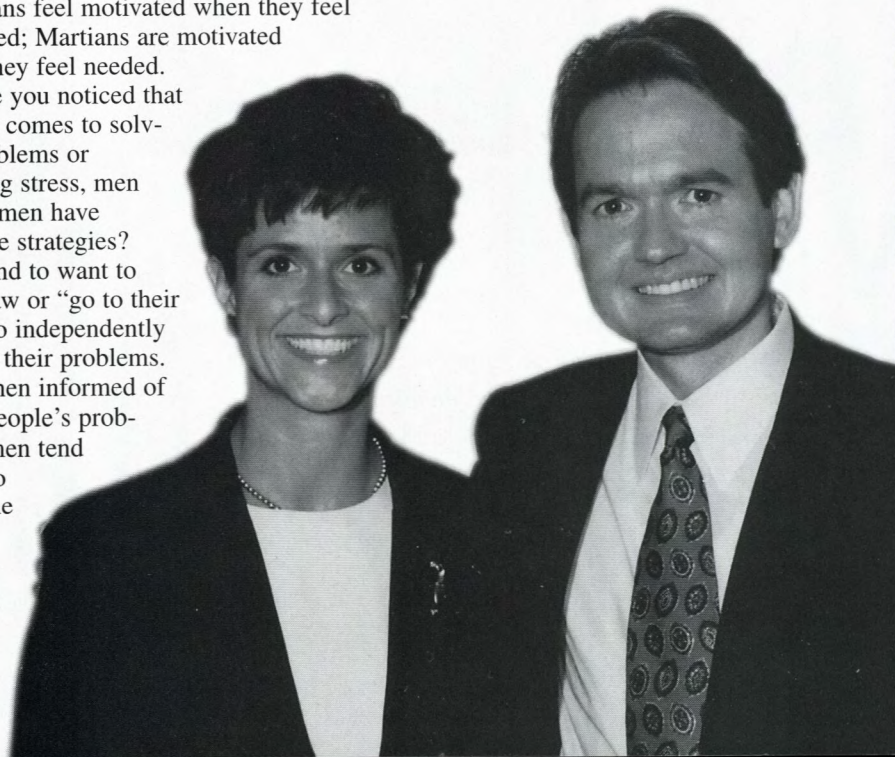

Have you noticed that when it comes to solving problems or relieving stress, men and women have opposite strategies? Men tend to want to withdraw or "go to their cave" to independently resolve their problems. And when informed of other people's problems, men tend to try to "fix" the situations by offering solutions. Women are more inclined to listen empathetically to the problems of others, and they want this kind of listening when they share problems.

Think about a time in the past when you felt misunderstood or were accused of not understanding. It may have been because you gave the other person what you most needed instead of what the other person needed. Consider how women try to help a man when he seems upset: They try to get him to talk when he most wants to visit his cave and think silently, or even ponder while watching TV. As women, we may misinterpret this behavior as denial or avoidance, when it actually is a way Martians deal with their issues.

Remember that Martians communicate best when they are feeling trusted, accepted, and appreciated. Here are some ways that we can communicate these feelings.

- 1 When he comes out of his cave, greet him positively without punishment.
- 2 When he gets lost while driving, don't make a big deal of it. Communicate that you trust him to figure it out.

3 When he forgets to pick up something you asked him to get, nonjudgmentally ask if he would do it next time he is out.

4 When he makes a mistake, withhold advice unless asked.

5 When the two of you have been close for a period of time (perhaps a weekend), and he then needs to withdraw, don't resist or make him feel guilty. Let him do the "guy thing" occasionally.

6 Let him know you are glad to see him at the end of the day.

7 When he apologizes for something, receive it with acceptance and forgiveness.

You may not always be able to respond in this way, and these approaches are not always appropriate. But if you are able to use them consistently, you can contribute to the quality of your relationships with men.

In the workshops I conduct, many women ask how to encourage their partner to read Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. I recommend finding a section that describes Martian behavior and asking him to read it. Then ask him to determine which parts fit him. This can be a great conversation-starter, as well as a motivator to read more of the book.

I highly recommend reading any of Dr. Gray's books. The Ahas will prove helpful in better understanding the differences between men and women. If you are interested in a workshop, call the Mars Venus Institute, 1-888-463-6684.

The Year of the Scholar

At the Interim Session of the National Panhellenic Conference last fall, the 26 member groups adopted unanimously a Resolution declaring 1997

"The Year of the Scholar." The NPC Creed reads, "We promote good scholarship, good health, and fine standards." When the chairmen of all NPC committees gathered to discuss priorities and direction for 1997, it seemed logical for NPC and its 26 member groups to combine good scholarship and standards and strive for the highest academic standards.

During The Year of the Scholar, college and alumnae Panhellenics and each of the 26 women's fraternities will make scholarship and academic integrity number-one priorities. There is potential for commitment from more than 2,800 collegiate chapters, 5,200 alumnae chapters, and 3 million fraternity women. Goals will be set, intellectual interests expanded, honor rolls and other forms of recognition established, and seminars held.

NPC's Academic Excellence Committee and its Year of the Scholar subcommittee will direct the work of the initiative. Kappa Alpha Theta's NPC delegates are Lissa Luton Bradford, delegate and secretary of NPC; Norma Anderson Jorgensen, first alternate; Carol Stenberg McPadden, second alternate; and Jill Pfeifle Sauser, third alternate.

Year of the Scholar Proclamation

Hear Ye, Hear Ye, Hear Ye ...

Let it be known to all in the interfraternity world that the National Panhellenic Conference duly proclaims nineteen hundred and ninety-seven as the National Panhellenic Conference Year of the Scholar, and ...

Let it be known that during this year ...

Every collegiate fraternity woman will set high academic goals and seek to reach her intellectual potential;

Every collegiate and alumnae member will inspire and guide her Panhellenic sisters to practice academic integrity; and Every NPC-member fraternity will challenge its members to strive for academic achievement and intellectual interests beyond the classroom.

Let it also be known that during this year ...

Every college Panhellenic will set an academic goal which exceeds the all-women's average on that campus;

Every college Panhellenic will pursue recognition on the NPC Academic Honor Roll;

Every college Panhellenic will recognize all fraternity women who achieve above the all-women's average and further recognize those who are on the Dean's List;

Every college Panhellenic will recognize all NPC chapters that achieve above the all-women's average;

Every college Panhellenic will foster academic excellence through seminars devoted to successful learning skills; and

Every college Panhellenic will establish a master calendar that recognizes academic performance as the highest priority.

Let it be further known that ...

Every alumnae Panhellenic will honor at one meeting during the year its representatives who are members of academic honor societies, including but not limited to Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Mortar Board;

Every alumnae Panhellenic will recognize all 4.0 or equivalent Panhellenic scholars in the local college Panhellenic;

Every alumnae Panhellenic will set aside meeting time to become better informed on fraternity issues, global issues, or other academic endeavors; and ...

Finally, let all fraternity women faithfully promise ...

To pursue knowledge with renewed vigor in accordance with the ideals expressed in the Panhellenic Creed.

This proclamation is hereby decreed to take effect on January 1, 1997, and to remain operational throughout every day of the Year of the Scholar. Let all our actions and deeds as fraternity women reflect our dedication to knowledge, integrity, excellence in scholarship, and the pursuit of truth. ■

Close-Up

'Housemother' Makes Theta House a Home

After the death of her husband in 1995, Sandy Fritz exchanged a two-story house in North Platte, Neb., for a beautifully furnished two-room apartment unit in the college town of Lincoln. In addition to this life-changing move, Fritz became a mother to more than 65 young women who live in the Rho Chapter facility of Kappa Alpha Theta. This is the same chapter facility where her daughter, Beth Fritz Davis, R/Nebraska, lived for four years while at UNL.

While the official title may be facility director, Fritz takes pride in assuming the unofficial role of "housemother." Fritz says, "I don't mind being called a housemother in the least. I love the job, and I love the girls."

As facility director, Fritz does the meal planning and food purchasing for the 65 women and deals with maintenance on the four-story house. She works out the facility budget, assists in coordinating special events, helps with hems and missing buttons, and, she says with a smile, keeps the pop machine full and maintains a supply of quarters for the laundry machines.

"And I listen—to the good times, the rough times, the ups and downs. I keep my door open all the time," says Fritz. It is her listening and love that has made this chapter house a home. ■

Portraits

Individual Achievements

JOAN GARWOOD CLARK, FK/WASHINGTON, recently published Center Stage, the first in a series of novels based on the lives of American actresses of the nineteenth century.

NICOLETTE LEMMON, ΔE/ARIZONA STATE, recently published her newest book, Almost Famous: How to Market Yourself For Success. In addition to being a successful author, Lemmon is also one of the country's most recognized and popular speakers on marketing.

BARBARA SNOW GILBERT, BΩ/COLORADO COLLEGE, has published her first novel, Stone Water, a thought-provoking look at euthanasia from the perspective of a 15-year-old boy.

Gilbert is an attorney who has extensive experience in litigation and mediation. Gilbert's second novel, Broken Chords, will be published in 1997.

BARBARA BURNETT RIGGS, ΓM/MARYLAND, associate director of the Office of Records and Registration at the University of Maryland at College Park, was recently honored with the Outstanding Associate Staff Member Award for computerizing registration and record-keeping functions.

CAROL MCCOWN MCHENRY, ΓO/NEW MEXICO, is back where she started nearly 50 years ago—the Theta house. As a staff assistant in the Human Resources Department of the University of New Mexico, her office is located in the one-time home of Kappa Alpha Theta's Gamma Omicron Chapter, which has since been disestablished. McHenry says that she has "... come full circle," and enjoys her office space, which is located in the former dormitory portion of the old house.

AMANDA MURRAH MATETSKY, ΓΔ/OHIO WESLEYAN, recently published her first novel, The Perfect Body. The book is described as a romantic, sexy, and humorous murder mystery. Matetsky is planning to donate ten percent of her earnings to the Nassau County, NY, affiliate of Literacy Volunteers of America, where she was a volunteer for more than four and a half years.

JUDY NAGAI, ZΘ/CAL-POLY, was selected by the National Interfraternity Foundation, Inc. to receive the Jack Anson Fellowship for the 1996-97 academic year. This award is based on her prior work as a chapter consultant and for her graduate work in Higher Education and Student Affairs Administration at the University of Vermont. Nagai was also named Outstanding Graduate Student for the State of Vermont by the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) Region I for the 1996-97 academic year.

MARY JORDAN "M.J." CONWAY, BA/WILLIAM AND MARY, was recently recognized as the 1996 Panhellenic Woman of the Year by the Quint Cities Panhellenic Association.

Conway currently serves as Quad Cities (Illinois and Iowa) Alumnae Club president and represents Theta on the local Panhellenic Board.

ROBERTA FORREST DeLUCA, ΓX/FRESNO STATE, has recently been credentialed to Diplomate for the American College of Healthcare Executives. This achievement serves as advancement and board certification for health care executives.

ANGELINA McDONALD, BN/FLORIDA STATE, has recently been promoted and transferred to Southampton, England, in her position at Enterprise Rent-A-Car. Enterprise is opening new offices all over England, and McDonald was selected to help launch their new extensions.

TERRI GREGORY-BROTZE, A/DEPAUW, took first place honors at the Texas Media Awards in July for her series "Battling Cancer." The series brought focus to personal stories of cancer-stricken children in the South Central Texas area. Gregory-Brotze's previous awards include Best Feature Story from the Associated Press and Best Investigative Report.

Theta 's New Educational Leadership Consultant

Jodi Verdicchio, ELC

Jodi Verdicchio serves as the Fraternity's newest Educational Leadership Consultant (ELC). She joins four other 1996-97 ELCs traveling to various college chapters to offer support, guidance, and new ideas to chapter members, advisory and facility corporation boards, and campus administrators.

OUR CHAPTER IS ... SPECIAL

Kappa Alpha Theta's college chapters are unique, exciting, and... special. That's what editors from 16 chapters told us when we asked them to showcase their chapters' distinctive characteristics. From fund-raising to scholarship to beloved facility directors, there's a lot to smile about at these special chapters.

ΓΔ/OHIO WESLEYAN

Delaware, Ohio, is known as the city of peace; it is also the home of the Gamma deuteron Chapter. Every December, in conjunction with the city, the Thetas hold their Peace Tree Lighting.

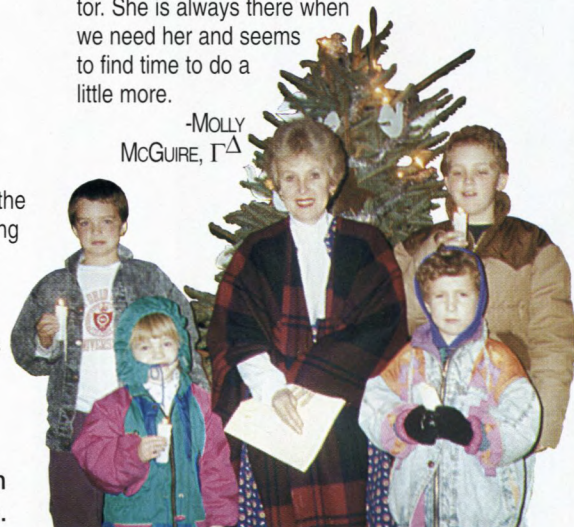

We display candles—sponsored by students of Ohio Wesleyan University, faculty, residences, and local businesses—all over the city to celebrate peace. Donations sponsoring the candles that lead the way to the Peace Tree are contributed to our national philanthropy, CASA.

Gamma deuteron members organize this event along with their facility director, Julie Ann Secrest, who is also the mayor of Delaware. Somehow Secrest finds time between her mayoral duties and her job as a fifth grade teacher to serve as our facility director. She is always there when we need her and seems to find time to do a little more.

-MOLLY
MCGUIRE, ΓΔ

ΦΔ/STANFORD

Last fall, the Phi deuteron Chapter at Stanford University hosted its twelfth annual Theta Breakers-Run for the Children 5K/10K Run/Walk. Eight hundred-twenty participants came to the Stanford Stadium one Sunday morning to raise money for San Mateo and Santa Clara County Child Advocates, to get some exercise, and to have fun. Through registration and corporate sponsorship, Kappa Alpha Theta raised more than $25,000 for Child Advocates. Runners did not leave empty-handed, either. Each participant received a Theta Breakers T-shirt and all the bagels, muffins, bananas, and beverages they could consume. Prizes donated by area businesses were awarded to the top three finishers in a number of different individual and team categories.

This was a big event that could not have been a success without everyone being involved. In the future, Phi deuteron Chapter hopes to give continued contributions to Child Advocates through Theta Breakers-Run for the Children.

-KATHRYN BERGSTENSSON, ΦΔ

Members of the Phi deuteron chapter were all smiles after a successful Theta Breakers.

AE/BROWN

Alpha Epsilon comprises a group of truly eclectic women, and we are proud to say that even though we have to work against the general anti-Greek sentiment that plagues our campus, our talents allow us to have a successful presence. Alpha Epsilon sisters are athletic captains, coaches, Phi Beta Kappas, musicians, artists, writers, and counselors. We have a strong relationship with the administration through our consistent presence on the undergraduate Council of Students and the Residential Council.

We make a special effort to share our commitment to service with the Brown community. This year we sponsored several blood drives for the Rhode Island Blood Bank, participated in the Walk for Literacy, raised money for a local shelter for troubled teens, bought Christmas presents for underprivileged children, and went Christmas caroling at a local hospital. Two members of our chapter are working with a local women's shelter to start a support group on campus for battered women. Not to mention that with all of these activities, we still managed to have the highest GPA of any Greek organization on campus.

By emphasizing our differences and our strength through diversity, we illustrate the wonders of sisterhood.

AA/WASHINGTON

The Alpha Lambda Chapter has consistently distinguished itself with outstanding service, and we expect to uphold our reputation for years to come. We are working on our second annual 5K Speak Up for Children Run for CASA. Last year's run raised $5,000. We had corporate sponsors donating food or money and 236 runners and walkers helping provide a voice for children in court. The goal for the second run is to have 350 runners and raise $10,000 for CASA.

In addition to raising money for CASA, we make a commitment to attend an actual CASA court case. Each member is required to attend a case at least one time during the year. We also invite a Guardian ad Litem to come to the house to speak about her job and experiences as a GAL.

The Alpha Lambda Chapter's service responsibility extends even farther. Each class is required to complete an all-class service project each quarter. Service is a serious commitment for Alpha Lambda. We have found that giving ourselves to others can make our college and sorority experience all the more rewarding.

-ERIN CAMPBELL, AA

A photo of Alpha Lambda Chapter members commemorated the first Speak Up for Children Run/Walk, the chapter's major fund-raising project.

AM/MISSOURI

The Alpha Mu/Missouri Chapter enjoyed a successful Homecoming 1996, winning first place in the overall campus competition in a triad partnership with Zeta Phi Beta and Farm House. A highlight of the week was the crowning of Kate Ridley, our 1996 president, as Homecoming Queen. Mizzou students were proud to set the new world record during Homecoming week for the largest amount of blood donated during peacetime.

Alpha Mu is setting the pace on the Mizzou campus with the latest in making designated driving easier: pagers. In cooperation with Ameritech Cellular Services, our vice-president development and chapter adviser purchased pagers for us to use during designated driving shifts. Now designated drivers can attend events rather than wait back at the chapter house for calls. Any Theta in need of a ride simply calls the pager number and leaves a voice message stating a location. The pager beeps, and the designated driver knows a sister is in need of a ride.

-ERIN KRETZSCHMAR, AM

AE/OREGON

Greek Sing is a five-year tradition at the University of Oregon. Each of the 11 sororities is paired with one or two of the 17 fraternities on our campus. Each group is to prepare a five- to seven-minute song and dance routine to a theme of their choice. We are given two to three months to prepare. The Alpha Xi Chapter had been three-time champions until placing third in 1995. We came back in 1996 with a goal to knock the whole Greek system off their rockers.

All the other acts had performed, the stage was dark, the MC announced the final act, "Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Phi Epsilon." By the end of the routine, the crowd was on its feet, screaming as loud as you can imagine. To this day, we all get goose bumps when we think about that night, when we knocked the entire Greek system off their rockers.

-SHANNON KILDUFF, AE

Kate Ridley, AM/Missouri, was crowned 1996 University of Missouri Homecoming Queen.

BN/FLORIDA STATE

Beta Nu Chapter had the proud honor of leaving last summer's Grand Convention quite the decorated chapter. Chapter members were ecstatic with pride and excitement when we received the Founders Award. Beta Nu also received first place for our advisory board and development. And our delegates were pleased and proud to accept the Golden Kite award. The theme of Grand Convention stated, "Together We Can Move Mountains," and the sisters of Beta Nu have found this to be true.

Our support of CASA is evident in the $1,500 raised through the raffling of a playhouse. Beta Nu members also raised $6,000 in the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon. Walking in memory and love of our deceased sister, Kim Adams, Beta Nu members were proud representatives in the cause to fight muscular dystrophy.

Through each of these accomplishments, our sisterhood has grown stronger.

-LAURA DEMPSEY, BN

Beta Nu Chapter members and alumnae celebrate their 1996 Grand Convention awards.

BΠ/MICHIGAN STATE

When you walk into the Kappa Alpha Theta house at Michigan State, you are immediately immersed in a warm and friendly environment that's more than just a beautiful physical structure with hardwood floors and plush furniture. It's a home away from home where you can always find a shoulder to cry on, a friend to laugh with, or someone to tell you the truth.

This individuality is recognized by those outside of the house as well as those within. Sharing a living space with fifty-some different girls doesn't have to mean becoming a clone of one another. Allowing members to maintain their individuality has been one of our strongest assets. Our chapter is one of the few on campus that has reached full membership potential thanks to this individuality. By encouraging every member to be her own person, we are drawing in more members, in turn bettering one another's lives and the community. That is what Theta is all about.

-JEANNETTE PORTER, BΠ

Iota Chapter: finding a new home at college, sharing and developing one's talents to the best of one's ability, becoming a leader and making a difference, supporting one another, graduating and passing the leadership on, and discovering that Theta love lasts a lifetime.

-MICHELLE KEMPER, ΓΙ

ΓΡ/UC SANTA BARBARA

This year the members of Gamma Rho were fortunate to have Kathy Becker become our new facility director. She is an amazing woman, and we are all so glad to have found such a warm, sincere, and caring "house mom." When we are all cracking the books, Kathy will make popcorn and set out study snacks for us to munch on. And oftentimes when we come home from school, we can smell delicious cookies baking in our kitchen! Kathy puts so much effort into her job, yet she never refers to it as her "work." She takes care of us as if we were her children and grandchildren, even though she already has plenty of her own!

Kathy's warm disposition and loving spirit touch our hearts, and she has all the qualities of a true Theta. We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful person in our lives.

-Brindon Asher, ΓΡ

Π/KENTUCKY

Kats, a rush skit and takeoff of the Broadway production, was first seen at Gamma Iota during the 1987 Fall Rush. It has been an important rush tradition at Gamma Iota, embodying the true meaning of Kappa Alpha Theta for 10 years. Rush is a time for prospective members to learn what makes our chapter sparkle and what better way than through the heartfelt lyrics and dancing of Kats. Kats takes all those watching through the full cycle of Kappa Alpha Theta sisterhood.

Kats exemplifies what's important to the Gamma

For 10 years, Kats has been a rush tradition for the Gamma Iota Chapter.

ΓΤ/TULSA

Each autumn at the University of Tulsa, the flyers of neon pink, yellow, and green soar just as high as the leaves of gold, orange, and brown. The flyers advertise the campus's long-awaited annual event: Theta World Cup Soccer Tournament, which raises money for the Tulsa-area CASA.

Students representing undergraduate, Greek, independent, and law school organizations formed teams to compete in the tournament's league competition. The Tournament raised more than $1000, with all proceeds going to the Tulsa-area CASA. It is the largest Greek fund-raiser on campus, and this year was the most successful year yet.

Thetas participated throughout the day in various ways: selling pizza, soft drinks, or T-shirts, line-judging, playing music for the participants, officiating, and serving as coaches to the teams. The Tulsa-area CASA representatives commended the Gamma Tau Chapter for our fund-raising efforts, and we had a fantastic time in the process. The tournament takes a lot of hard work and preparation for many months beforehand, but it pays off in the end. The 1996 Theta World Cup V was a great success!

-CHERYL SHIJE, $\Gamma\Gamma$

ΔZ /EMORY

Rather than limit our knowledge to the information found in textbooks and in lectures, the members of Delta Zeta prefer the hands-on approach to life and learning. This summer, many of us decided to expand our horizons globally and traveled to Europe, where the bonds of Theta sisterhood grew stronger through shared experiences. Four Theta sisters studied in Salamanca, Spain, practicing their Spanish skills and learning about the culture firsthand. Three sisters traveled to Paris, France, studying art history and being romanced by the French way of life. In Oxford, England, two more Delta Zeta sisters learned the ways of the British, almost 1200 years after the beginnings of the great Oxford University.

Although these sisters had the summers of their dreams, the real beauty and excitement surrounding their experiences comes with their willingness to share the knowledge they were given with others. Through pictures, scrapbooks, and stories without end, these sisters brought Europe back to Atlanta, Georgia. The more we know, the more we hope to learn, and the women of Delta Zeta have shown just how exciting, interesting, and special the world can be.

-Sara Ducharme, ΔZ

EPI/BUCKNELL

What makes Epsilon Pi exciting, interesting, and ... special? How could I possibly propose to answer that question by myself? Of course, my sisters are my special Theta inspiration. So, I asked the question of them. Here are their answers.

•An opportunity to form friendships for a lifetime. •The support of your sisters. •With every new member class we change and grow, and our new members always add excitement and their own special touch. •We are all different people with varying interests and hobbies, yet we still have a great chapter. •Our growing sisterly love and appreciation for everyone. •The sisters are funny, supportive, and feel comfortable being themselves. •The immediate and special bond that is shared among all the sisters. •The special sense of belonging. •Our chapter is unique, caring, dedicated to the sisterhood and to ourselves. •As an only child, I have found in Epsilon Pi the chance to experience the special bond of sisterhood. •The sisters of Epsilon Pi are the most eclectic girls I know, and that is always broadening my horizons.

-STACY SIRAVO, EPI

EΦ/CHICAGO

During weekly meetings, the Epsilon Phi chapter at the University of Chicago tours the world through our Scholarship Cultural Presentations. Sisters volunteer to bring up interesting points about their culture, hometown, or religion and present them to the chapter. These informal presentations are three to five minutes long, and often the presenter brings along a bit of her culture as a visual aid—usually food!

Recent presentations have varied from life in an Indian culture to life in Southern Illinois, from life in Concord, Mass., to life in Mexico. Friendships and sisterhood are strengthened with these informal presentations. We ask questions, and we laugh at one another's unique presentation styles. The Scholarship Cultural Presentation is an anticipated event at each meeting. It is an opportunity for members of our diverse chapter to become familiar with one another's background and lifestyles in an informal way.

-ELYZE McDONALD, EΦ

ZK/SOUTH CAROLINA

Zeta Kappa was formed in 1990, a late-comer to the South Carolina campus. In the fall of 1995, Zeta Kappa had about 35 members, while some of the larger sororities had more than 100. Through continuous open bidding and spring rush, our numbers began to grow.

Educational Leadership Consultant Kelly Welch arrived in South Carolina approximately a week before rush began and remained for the first week. Her positive reinforcement gave the chapter confidence. This carried over into our rush conversations, and the rushees saw it.

Zeta Kappa gained sixteen beautiful women, more than the last two rushes put together. We may not yet be at the same level as the larger sororities on the campus, but we have just begun and continue to build, in both number and confidence.

-TRACY VREELAND, ZK

ZT/DELAWARE

The women of Zeta Tau have been busy, busy this year. We had our first anniversary party, which turned out to be very exciting and memorable. Alice Broadhead, Beta Eta/Pennsylvania, came to speak to our chapter about her 60-plus years with Theta. She actually met Bettie Locke Hamilton during her time as a young pledge. After hearing her speak, Zeta Tau members felt like they had touched a piece of Theta history.

We held our first Aerob-a-thon for CASA, which will provide T-shirts, door prizes, and three hours of aerobics for participants, as well as funds for CASA. We're also currently contemplating the idea of a possible house here on campus, and that prospect is very exciting, as well.

Plans for rush are well under way; everyone is involved and willing to lend a hand. Many of the founding sisters are starting to prepare for graduation, but all of the current officers are confident that the Zeta Tau Chapter will have another 100 years as exciting and fun-filled as the first year.

-ANNE DAWSON, ZT

ALUMNAE REPORT

One Size Fits All...

What do corporate executives, retired grandmothers, homemakers with toddlers, and job-seeking recent graduates have in common? A place in their lives for Kappa Alpha Theta!

We asked members of alumnae chapters and clubs to share their ideas for attracting Thetas with a diversity of backgrounds, interests, and vocations to their groups' meetings and events. Thirteen alumnae groups responded with accounts of their creative programming efforts.

Chicago North Shore

The Chicago North Shore Alumnae Chapter keeps Thetas of all ages involved in programming by appealing to many different interests.

Our Moms 'n' Tots group meets at a park to play, a farm to pick apples and pumpkins, or at the ice rink. The Nite Kites meet in Chicago for a shopping night at a boutique, for tea at the Drake Hotel, or to collect toiletries for CASA at a CASA dessert and information night. The Out to Dinner group meets monthly at North Shore restaurants for casual dinner and conversation. There are monthly luncheon programs featuring Theta home cooking; lovely homes; and speakers on birds, stress, finance, and fitness. Thetas from all groups enjoy a fall cocktail party and an annual holiday party, as well as the Founders Day celebration with Tau and Epsilon Phi Chapters. Thetas check off their interests on the dues envelope to receive mailings for the various activities, and a schedule of activities is included in our two newsletters.

We have found that appealing to many different interest groups helps to encourage more Thetas to enjoy one another's company.

MARY ELLEN FITZSIMONDS,
BK/DRAKE

Denver

To promote the involvement of many types of members, the Denver Alumnae Chapter has taken some basic leisure-time activities and turned them into social events. Whether cooking gourmet food with friends, playing with the kids in a mom-tots group, bidding on tricks in a bridge game, or taking a hike as a group, Theta accommodates its members' wants and desires.

Through special interest groups, Thetas in the Denver area can get together once a month or more to see an old Theta friend or to meet a new Theta face.

Our chapter also hosts a variety of one-time events throughout the year. These seminars allow Theta women to learn while they socialize. Some of the 1996-97 programs include: "Your Choice in Health Care: Living Wills and Advance Directives," "Gender Communication: Fireside Chat and Dinner," and "Sign on the Dotted Line: The Art of Handwriting Analysis." The events are scheduled at different times in an attempt to accommodate all 440 members' schedules.

The Denver group strives to include all Theta types through its special interest groups and event programming.

SUSAN CHASE, A/DEPAUW

Fort Collins

What do Fort Collins Thetas have in common? We have a place in our lives for a thriving alumnae chapter!

We start at the very beginning to bring the various generations together by making sure our nominating committee is made up of various ages and that the slate they present is also of the same makeup. As the meeting times and programs are set for the coming year, we set up different times of the day for meetings to accommodate all schedules, and we create programs that are of interest to all age groups.

A biking interest group made a day-long trek up in the Rocky Mountains this past September, and they invited their Theta daughters to ride along. For more than 40 years, the alumnae chapter has given demitasse spoons engraved with KAΘ to the graduating seniors of the Beta Gamma Chapter. They are given during a dinner honoring the seniors and their new alumnae status.

There are just a few of the many longstanding and new traditions within our chapter that pull the generations together.

STEPHANIE DUGGER,
BT/COLORADO STATE

Indianapolis

The Indianapolis Alumnae Chapter kicked off a new fund-raiser, CASAs for Kids. CASAs for Kids was so popular in the Indianapolis area that many Thetas who have not been involved with our chapter for a few years are asking how to become involved.

In addition to our fund-raiser, we offer programming throughout the year.

Special interest groups include Day and Evening Bridge, Toddler Moms, and Out to Lunch Bunch. Interest in these groups, support of our collegians (Gamma and Alpha Chapters), and service-project volunteerism have all increased this year. Two new groups, a book club and a gardening group, are also being formed due to member interest.

We have used the following methods to attract alumnae interest.

- Personal contact with each member. One of the goals of the staffing effort for CASAs for Kids was to telephone each of the 1700 alumnae in our area and encourage their support.

- Ask members what they want. Our yearly dues notice contains a section for alumnae to indicate an interest in special interest groups or specific area of the alumnae chapter.

- Offer varied programming. This year, our programs have included a mystery play/tour of a historic home, a dessert buffet and matinee showing of a Broadway play, a gardening seminar, and activities with Gamma Chapter.

We're very excited about what has happened with our chapter this year. One of the goals the executive board set was to increase member participation in our activities. Based on this year's interest, we believe that we're on the right track!

La Cañada Flintridge

A wee Theta alumnae club tucked in the foothills north of Los Angeles puts on a successful fund-raiser each year that brings all ages and many interests together.

Each year, we invite guests to a Christmas brunch and charity auction at the La Cañada Country Club. Thetas contribute delicious baked goods; well-crafted decorations; stitchery; and collectibles, such as silver or crystal.

Thetas and their guests have time to socialize and preview the items before brunch is served. Then the fun begins. Auctioneer Susan Cook clowns around trying on items, cooing over the baked goods, thumping the crystal, and coaxing outrageous bids out of the audience. We all have fun, and the guests love it. This happy day usually makes well over $1,000 and sometimes close to $2,000.

New Jersey North Central

Several years ago, our club dissolved due to a membership decline; last year, a group of alumnae re-established the club. The challenge we face is that our membership encompasses a wide range of ages, interests, and lifestyles.

In experimenting with meeting topics and times, we have found something that members of all ages are responding to: a discussion group. Although originally planned as an endeavor for our older members, the discussion group is attracting all ages, from 33 to 103. Attendance has ranged from 16 to 24 so far, greater than for any of our other programs (except Founders Day).

Our interesting discussions to date have each been led by a member and include sexual challenges faced by youth of today, senior adult living options, and fashion trends for the '90s. Upcoming topics will include developments in theories of evolution, decorating as we'd like to see it in the year 2000, and five minute capsules on "A book I'd like to recommend."

Shirley Hudson, ΔN/Arkansas, led a group of New Jersey North Central Chapter members in a discussion of '90s fashions.

Part of the success of the discussion group seems to be its simplicity. We are now thinking about initiating a similar after-work gathering time for the young professionals in our area.

Pittsburgh

Involvement in our alumnae chapter continues to grow. Sending out questionnaires and educating the most recent graduating Thetas about the alumnae chapter has been the key to involvement.

This fall, our chapter sent a newsletter, The Pittsburgh Pansy, to Thetas in the Pittsburgh area for the first time in two years. It included an events calendar, information on CASA, a coupon for a free membership for a 1996 graduate, and much more. It was a wonderful way to pique interest in the alumnae chapter.

Our calendar of events includes formal as well as informal gatherings. Our formal gatherings include a pumpkin-carving fest, a fireside holiday party, and a Founders Day luncheon. The informal gatherings include a downtown lunch group and South Hills bridge group. Theta Moms and Tots is an informal play group for Theta moms in three different areas of Pittsburgh.

When I moved to Moline, Ill., in 1992, I found Theta alumnae with the help of The Magazine, and I offered to get involved. I became club president and have loved my job ever since. The key ingredient? Personal, compassionate friendliness.

I made a membership file box with data on each alumna. I called each Theta, asked if she wanted to be on our local list, and asked for a dues contribution. As I called, I took notes. I recorded job details, names of family members, hobbies, and other pertinent details.

Pittsburgh alumnae displayed the pumpkins they carved as a chapter activity.

I wrote a note to each Theta to thank her for paying dues. If a young alum had a newborn baby, I sent a note. If an alum had an ailing husband, I sent a note. If an alum was a recent 50-year Theta, I sent a note.

Now our alumnae club makes annual phone calls as time allows. Since we meet only three or four times each year, several Thetas meet more often for breakfast or lunch to welcome a newcomer as soon as we connect with her.

In this fast-paced, computerized world, we're caring about fellow Thetas locally with our personal contacts.

St. Louis

What draws a crowd to St. Louis alumnae meetings? Programs that are just as active and diverse as this chapter's members ... held at a variety of places and times.

St. Louis alumnae successfully piloted an alternating luncheon and dinner format. Short business meetings are followed by lighthearted programs such as a Cardinal baseball preview, playing Bunko, and creating auction/collegiate care baskets. Serious and fun programs have been alternated in recent years' schedules to attract all ages and interests.

Inviting topics, a flexible schedule, and cozy alumnae homes throughout our membership area draw that Theta crowd! Door prizes for bringing a new (or familiar) Theta friend also help.

MARTY H. GALGANSKI, T/NORTHWESTERN

San Mateo County

Each year, the San Mateo County Alumnae Chapter invites mothers of Theta collegians from our area to one of our monthly meetings. This year we were delighted to invite 25 moms from nine neighboring towns to our November luncheon. The moms represented Theta daughters from 18 different campuses, half from California schools and half from out-of-state schools. This annual luncheon is a favorite among our alumnae members.

Including Theta moms at our alumnae chapter meeting is a unique way for Theta to connect within our community and bridge the generation gap. Whether the local moms have daughters from nearby Theta chapters (UC Berkeley, Stanford) or from far-flung Theta chapters (Duke, Cornell), we are pleased to provide an opportunity for strengthening our common links to the extended Theta family chain.

ANGELA NORTON, Ω /UC BERKELEY

Seattle

Theta actives from Alpha Lambda/Washington and Alpha Sigma/Washington State helped Seattle alumnae make quilts for the annual holiday luncheon and auction held in December. The collegians used paints, appliqué, and embroidery to decorate quilt squares with scenes from their campuses, projects, and events. The alumnae put these squares together as box quilts in the school colors.

Seattle alumnae fashioned quilts from squares created by Thetas at Alpha Lambda and Alpha Sigma Chapters.

St. Louis alumnae created their own luncheon with helpful tips from a caterer.

This is a really simple project and a wonderful way to commemorate someone's term of office or school years. The best part is the truly unique quality that the individual squares have. There is also a special camaraderie in completing this as a group project. We hope to do something similar in the future to include the two other Theta chapters in Washington.

SUSAN WEBB, $\Delta\Delta$ /WHITMAN

Upstate South Carolina

In slightly more than a year, the Upstate SC Alumnae Club has grown from 12 interested Thetas to more than 50 dues-paying members. At the 1996 Grand Convention, the Upstate SC Theta Alumnae Club won the second-place award for best new alumnae group and first place for most outstanding newsletter.

One of the primary goals of the club is supporting the two nearby college chapters: Zeta Eta at Wofford College and Delta Phi at Clemson. Twelve club members serve on the advisory boards, facility corporations, or in other chapter support roles. Last fall, the club played an active role in rush at Wofford and at Clemson.

Not only are the Upstate Thetas involved with the college chapters, they are becoming active in service projects as well. A major focus this fall was becoming involved with the Guardian ad Litem programs in Spartanburg and Greenville. Club members have participated in other community service projects, as well.

Social events have included a Founders Day celebration, to which members brought memorabilia from their college days to share with other Thetas. Last spring, the group held a potluck dinner, tour, and tasting at a working microbrewery. In October, the group held a skin-care and makeup workshop, and other social events are planned for 1997.

TANYA BORDEAUX HAMM,

Washington, DC/ Suburban Maryland

Recognizing that Thetas in this area are different ages with different occupations, a variety of interests, and limited time, our goal is capturing the interest of our members in at least one activity.

This year, we initiated several special interest groups: dinner group, book club, movie group, mothers-of-young-children group, and a museum tours group. The groups vary in size and meet when it is most convenient.

We are in the process of initiating a telephone-calling tree to remind our members of upcoming events. We will evaluate its success after several months to see if it resulted in increased attendance at meetings.

After a lapse of several years, we reintroduced a collegiate Sunday afternoon cookies-and-punch social at a local restaurant during the Christmas holidays. We wanted to give the Theta collegians who live in our area an opportunity to meet one another and our alumnae and learn about alumnae activities.

We also held a springtime Sunday afternoon tea to honor our alumnae who have been Thetas for at least 50 years. It was an opportunity for them to renew friendships and reminisce about earlier times. It also offered the younger Thetas a chance to see what "Theta for a lifetime" really means.

ALUMNAE-AT-LARGE

Remember When?

When was the last time you wore your Kappa Alpha Theta badge?

If you're like most of us, it's been a while. Maybe it was for a Founders Day celebration. Maybe it was when you were still in college. Or maybe you can't even remember the last time! If your badge has been languishing in the bottom of your jewelry drawer or in a box of college mementoes, now is the time to think about finding it and wearing it again.

Perhaps you've thought that it was inappropriate for an alumna to wear her badge in a non-Fraternity setting. In reality, there are no rules about where and when an initiated member of the Fraternity may wear her badge. And remember: In addition to being a visible symbol of your Theta membership, your badge is also a piece of fine jewelry. You may wear it on a lapel, on a collar, or on a scarf.

Or perhaps you seldom wear pins or brooches; maybe you're more of a necklace or ring wearer. Theta's official jeweler offers several options that may make your badge more wearable. A kite-shaped pin-on charm and chain lets you wear your badge as a necklace without altering the badge. And a new ring form lets you wear your badge as a ring, again without altering it in any way.

Please contact us for more information about the pin-on badge charm, the badge ring, the many styles of KΑΘ badges available, or to request a complete catalog.

Coming Soon ...

The Alumnae-at-Large Page!

Theta alumnae-at-large live outside North America or in an area without an active alumnae chapter or club. This makes it hard to stay in touch with the Fraternity and with other Thetas. Beginning with this issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, we will include a page for and about alumnae-at-large in each spring and autumn issue.

Kristin Yates, Gamma Epsilon/Western Ontario, will serve as the coordinator of this page. Yates currently lives in Vancouver, British Columbia, where she is a freelance writer and editor. She says that she has had experience being an at-large Theta. "I have moved a great deal since leaving Western," she explains. "I have not had the opportunity to belong to an alumnae chapter or club, so I know exactly what it is like to feel out of touch with the Fraternity."

Alumnae-at-large can send ideas or information to Kristen Yates, c/o Kappa Alpha Theta, 8740 Founders Rd., Indianapolis, IN 46268.

Yates wrote the following essay to convey her feelings about Theta for a lifetime.

In 1987, I left the University of Western Ontario. In just a few years, many of the friendships I had made dissipated as I realized that all we had had in common were some classes together. Some friendships, however, have only grown stronger over the years. These friendships have taught me that membership in Theta truly is for a lifetime.

The friendships that have stood the test of time are those forged in the close bond of sisterhood. Within Theta, we worked together to attain our scholastic goals, raised funds for various philanthropies, and learned to support and nurture one another. We discovered the truest meaning of friendship: that it is built on trust and honesty and selflessness. At initiation, we were given a precious gift: the knowledge that membership in Kappa Alpha Theta does not end at graduation but continues for the rest of our lives.

It isn't until we graduate that we realize what a gift that truly is. As alumnae members, we have the opportunity to meet sisters from all over the world, and we have a world of opportunities open to us. We can act as a mentor for others, volunteer for CASA, and participate in national conventions. With Theta connections, we can even network our way to new career options.

Through this network, we have both the honor and the challenge of insuring that Theta continues to flourish so that college women can continue to benefit from all that membership in Theta has to offer.

Theta for a lifetime: college friendships that stand the test of time and distance, the challenge of insuring that Theta remains strong both now and in the future, the pride we feel in belonging to an organization focused on helping women achieve their dreams. What an honor and privilege it is to be a link in this 127-year-old chain as an alumnae member of Kappa Alpha Theta. ■

THETA FINDS CHALLENGES IN PEACE CORPS

Nan Brown, Δ /Vermont, with some of the men and children from her Dominican "hometown," Cañafistol. The men belong to the local agricultural association and are visiting an organic demonstration farm.

There was a group of us in that dilapidated old truck—about 17 Dominicans of all ages and sizes. There were also 19 chickens, one good-sized pig, two sacks filled with rice and one with beans, a couple of very large stew pots, and my tent. Plus numerous other bags, some plants, and a bunch of cement blocks.

All of this was heading up the mountain at a 30-degree grade in a 1964 Toyota pickup truck with a goat tied to the 2x4 that served as the rear bumper. The tires were sending rocks cascading over the cliffs the whole time. Nonetheless, we made it. That was my first trip into the mountains. I had decided to go to check out the farming; all the agronomists had suggested it. It's my job.

My name is Nan Bambara Brown. I am a Peace Corps volunteer in the Dominican Republic. I have been living in this country for two years, working as a crop production specialist for the Dominican Ministry of Agriculture. I see my role as a facilitator, linking Dominican agronomists to subsistence agricultural producers. Together, we are presenting new ideas about minimum-input (both human and financial), environmentally friendly farming. We are laying a foundation of education, some of which the farmers will use now and some of which they will build on in the future. For the farmers, I am a bridge to education.

I have designed a series of educational courses to introduce and train farmers in these new methods of sustainable agriculture. The majority of our teaching is done using demonstration plots, field trips to working farms (called "Dias de Campo"), and mini-courses. We teach about green manures to increase soil fertility, living and dead barriers to help against soil erosion, companion planting and crop rotation to utilize the natural benefits of different plants, organic compost and natural pesticides to augment natural pest resistance, and fruit-tree grafting to help in reforestation.

One of the courses we gave was beekeeping. Although we taught 32 farmers inexpensive ways to start a successful bee project, at this time, not one project has been started. What does this mean? It is frustrating for me not to have immediate success.

At times like this, I remember a story that an old farmer in a nearby community once told me. Twenty-five years ago, a Peace Corps volunteer taught him how to build using adobe. This was his first venture into formal learning. At the time, for numerous reasons, he decided not to use this new skill. Today this farmer is making his first adobe building in which he plans to hang his certificates and diplomas. After he told me this story, he looked at me with eyes full of wisdom and asked, "What do you think of that?"

I know now that if I expect immediate results and successes, I am underestimating the power of education. Perhaps the challenges that face me as a Peace Corps volunteer and the challenges that face the farmers with whom I work are not so different. We both tend to get frustrated by the education process. I am realizing that it is not easy being the teacher, but it is also not easy being the student. These are things I remind myself of daily.

Since that first trip into the mountains, I have returned many times. It is one of my greatest pleasures, jumping into that 1964 Toyota truck, thinking that perhaps this is the day I'll be asked, "Would you like to try some of my honey?" ■

A Talent for Talent

You may not know
Marion Dougherty's name, but you're sure to recognize her "talents."

Marion Dougherty gave Robert DeNiro his first job, "found" Glenn Close, and counts the likes of Robert Redford, Paul Newman, and Clint Eastwood, whom she's known for years, among "some of the nicest people."

Dougherty, Beta Phi/Penn State, has been a casting director for nearly 50 years. In productions from '50s television standards such as Route 66 to recent big-screen box-office hits like Batman, her job has been to find just the right actors for the right parts.

Dougherty has worked at Warner Brothers, where she is senior vice-president of talent, for the last 16 years. She has been referred to as that studio's grande dame of casting.

That, she says, makes her feel old, but it doesn't surprise her. "I practically invented casting," she says with a husky chuckle.

"I've been it since 1949, and I'm about the only person still alive and kicking who cast in those days. Most have died off or gone on to greater glory."

Not Dougherty. With characteristic directness, softened by a hint of dry, but good-hearted humor, Dougherty explains that she is fortunate not to look or feel her 74 years and that she continues to be content doing what she does best. "I like casting, and I'm good at it. And I know that."

She is good. Dougherty has cast more than one hundred feature films, including Midnight Cowboy (1969), The Great Gatsby (1975), Taxi Driver (1977), Lethal Weapon (1986), and Something to Talk About (1995). The list of actors she's introduced to key roles in television and films is equally impressive, and includes Jack Lemmon, Warren Beatty, Robert Duvall, and Danny Glover. Recently, and well before the rest of the world began raving about him, she predicted the success of A Time to Kill star Matthew McConaughey, going so far as to ask the CEO of Warner Brothers to get an option on the young actor.

What makes Dougherty so successful? "I have no idea," she admits, but hard work, good instincts, and a genuine interest in people surely have a lot to do with it. Particularly revealing is Dougherty's favorite part of the casting process: the readings. "I'm a ham. I read with everybody. I'm a good actor, and I give a lot of support to actors. I give them something to work against."

Dougherty's empathy for actors began in the early '40s at Penn State, where she was an art major, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Mortar Board, and a performer with the Penn State Players. After she graduated, she worked as an actress and set designer for the Cleveland Playhouse. In 1946, Dougherty headed to New York with the intention of continuing her acting career, but instead found employment designing windows for a department store and selling advertising. "I was too much of a sissy for acting," explains Dougherty. "Actors have to face tremendous rejection. But it taught me a great lesson. It's hard for actors to come in and sell themselves. I understand that. I try to be considerate and kind to actors."

Dougherty began her casting career in 1949 when a college friend who was casting for the Kraft Television Theater asked her to be his assistant. Six months later, he left, and Dougherty took his place. Selecting actors for Kraft, and later Naked City and Route 66 in the 1950s ("When television was good," Dougherty notes wryly.), she had the opportunity to work with many fine performers.

That experience proved invaluable when the Marion Dougherty's own face isn't famous, but she's helped launch the careers of some of the most famous faces in Hollywood.

By Susan Stephen Holloway,
Phi/Iowa State

television industry moved to the West Coast in the '60s. The better trained, more serious actors, Dougherty believes, usually come from New York schools and drama instructors. "But people in Hollywood weren't used to going to New York and didn't know who was in the schools," she explains. "They were using all these wonderful actors like Redford and Alan Alda in these tiny parts. Then all of a sudden, somebody got smart. When they did, they called me, because I was the only person who knew the talent."

Working first independently, then for Paramount and Warner Brothers, Dougherty made an amazingly smooth and successful transition from television to the big screen. In her first year in feature films, director George Roy Hill, whom she met while he was directing at Kraft, asked her to cast The World of Henry Orient. In 1965, it and another picture, One Potato Two Potato—the first movies Dougherty cast—were shown at Cannes, the renowned film festival.

No awards are given for casting, but Dougherty says that it can be as significant as the script and the director are to a movie. Good casting can help a bad script, and it can make a movie with a good script. Bad casting can ruin a picture, notes Dougherty, citing Bonfire of the Vanities as a movie that suffered when great actors were cast in the wrong roles.

Although she has been credited with "recasting casting," Dougherty says that isn't exactly accurate. "In the old days, there wasn't any such thing as casting," she explains. "The studios had all these actors under contract. When a director went to do a picture, it was like ordering Chinese food: one from column A, one from column B. It was typecasting. Easy."

Dougherty's approach was unique because it was more selective, and she says some casting directors still submit what she refers to as grocery lists. "I hate them. Anyone can do that. It's silly. I don't think there are hordes of people who are right for every part. I don't like to submit too many."

Before she selects actors and brings them in to read, Dougherty first reads the script and talks to the director. "The director is the most important thing, because it's his vision. Sometimes the director may have a different idea of the character than I do. Ultimately I would have to conform to what he wants, but I may try to change his mind. I've done that and have been successful."

Her biggest victory in such a circumstance was the movie Midnight Cowboy. "The producer and director, John Schlesinger, had already made up their minds, and I disagreed violently. I didn't think their choice was right at all. I felt that Jon Voight was really right for the part of Joe Buck. I lost the argument, but then the other chap was under contract, and they wouldn't let him out for rehearsal. Voight saved the picture. Without him, it would have made a totally different picture." (Midnight Cowboy, Schlesinger, and Voight won a number of awards including the Academy Award for best picture in 1969.)

Dougherty scouts talent by watching hundreds of movies each year, although she says

Dougherty has worked at Warner Brothers, where she is senior vice-president of talent, for the last 16 years.

Marion Dougherty has cast more than one hundred feature-length films in her career. This is just a partial list.

The World of Henry Orient (1965)	Escape from Alcatraz (1980)
The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter (1967)	Any Which Way You Can (1981)
Midnight Cowboy (1969)	Urban Cowboy (1981)
The Owl and the Pussycat (1971)	American Gigolo (1981)
Bananas (1972)	Reds (1982)
Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory (1972)	The World According to Garp (1983)
Slaughterhouse Five (1973)	Sudden Impact (1984)
The Sting (1974)	Little Drummer Girl (1985)
Lenny (1975)	Lethal Weapon (1986)
The Great Gatsby (1975)	Gorillas in the Mist (1989)
Where the Lilies Bloom (1975)	Batman (1989)
The Day of the Locust (1976)	Batman Returns (1991)
The Great Waldo Pepper (1976)	Falling Down (1992)
Taxi Driver (1977)	Maverick (1993)
Looking for Mr. Goodbar (1978)	Something to Talk About (1995)
Pretty Baby (1979)	Rosewood (1997)

it's difficult to determine the actual number of films she watches because she sees bits and pieces while viewing dailies at the studio. She also spends as much time as possible in New York where she attends the theater regularly. "I prefer off-Broadway and off-off-Broadway. That's where you see new people." And, adds Dougherty, "That's the fun."

Although she simply endures Los Angeles ("I've been out here for 20 years, and I hate it. I'm an Easterner.") and the job's requisite deal-making, Dougherty thrives on the people: finding new actors, casting better-known actors in different roles, and working with interesting directors.

It was also the people who attracted Dougherty to Theta's Beta Phi Chapter at Penn State. "I loved college, loved the Thetas," says Dougherty. She recalls the days when Kappa Alpha Theta was the only women's fraternity to have a house on the Penn State campus. And she remembers with pleasure the Big Bands that traveled to State College. "There we were, smack in the middle of nowhere, but we had everything there, and we made our own fun."

Dougherty has stayed in touch with the women in her pledge class through a round robin letter that's been circulating since 1943. "It's been lost a couple times. I once lost it on the subway in New York, but it started up again. It's amazing. The whole lives of these women: marriages, children, children's children."

But Dougherty doesn't spend much time being nostalgic. "I hope I'm wiser, because I'm sure as heck older," she quips, adding that she counts dear friends, her good health, and a sense of humor among the blessings that have kept her going after many have retired. "God willing and the creek don't rise and my health is OK, I'll keep working."

Just back from New York, Dougherty looks forward to continuing work on a current project that will star Robert DeNiro and Billy Crystal. She is obviously very fond of both. "It seems to me that the biggies are really very nice people. The people who really have talent are quite lovely."

That said, Dougherty seems to be excellent proof that it takes one to know one. ■

ALL ABOUT REFERENCES

Tell a college chapter about a young friend who would make a good Theta.

WHAT TO SEND: Tear out this Rush Reference form. If you need multiple forms, please make photocopies. Complete information about the rushee's qualifications is essential, and a picture of her is highly desirable. Get both from her or her family IF SHE IS A FRIEND OF YOURS; however, members must NOT call or visit a rushee or her family they do not know to request information or a picture.

WHERE TO SEND IT: Send references to the rushee's hometown Rush Reference Board Chairman (RRBC). If there is no reference board for the rushee's hometown, send references to the Authorized Rush Representative (ARR). If there is no ARR, send references to the Reference Chairman for the college chapter the rushee is attending.

REMEMBER THETA AND NPC GUIDELINES: Once rush has begun, alumnae and collegiate members from other campuses must NOT contact rushees, and alumnae may NOT contact members of the college chapter to inquire about the progress of rush. Such calls must be addressed to the chapter's membership adviser. Alumnae should neither expect to receive any information about the status of a specific rushee nor expect to receive bid list information. Alumnae are also prohibited from sending food or gifts in any form to the chapter on behalf of a rushee. Breaking Panhellenic rules may cause the chapter to be penalized.

Ready for the Year 2000: Rush on the Modern Campus

A Theta alumna visiting one of today's campuses during rush might be unsure of what to expect. Is the rush process a tired old dinosaur or a vastly revolutionized system?

Not too many years ago, Theta chapters held a yearly event called rush. Thetas would write and practice skits, memorize songs, prepare name tags and decorations, and rehearse escorting and introducing rushees. After about a week of frantic preparations, we would throw open our doors for a series of parties usually called rush rounds. At the conclusion of this intense activity, the allotted quota of qualified young women would be pledged and we would go about our business, forgetting all about rush, until the process began again the following year.

Those of us who were part of it embraced this annual ritual without question, and we often assume that it is still the norm today. While traditional formal rush still takes place on most campuses, member recruitment on the modern campus has become a twelve-month process.

Successful chapters realize that the image they maintain on campus and in the community has a dramatic effect on membership recruitment. These chapters understand that they cannot feign to be something for one week that they haven't been all year! They understand sisterhood and the true meaning of friendship, and they have learned to step out of the "rush box" and into the habit of extending the benefits of Theta membership 365 days a year.

The National Panhellenic Conference Rush Resolutions of 1991 were the first step for today's "back to the basics" approach to member recruitment on many campuses. A look at current rush trends reveals that:

- elaborate rush parties which focused on entertainment are outdated;
- rush schedules are shorter;
- focus has shifted from the process and structure (i.e. elaborate productions) to the rushee;
- the number of schools with delayed

Successful chapters realize that the image they maintain on campus and in the community has a dramatic effect on membership recruitment.

fall rush is increasing;

- on many campuses, the numbers pledged in continuous open bidding (COB) often exceed the formal rush intake;
- COB is becoming an accepted part of the rush process for all chapters on campuses everywhere.

To meet the challenges of the changing campus, the Membership Committee has developed a new COB program to assist collegiate chapters to reach quota or Panhellenic total. The name Together Thetas for Total Impact has been given to this program. The name was chosen to combine the new membership recruitment theme introduced at Grand Convention 1996 with our membership goals for the future of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Under the new program, continuous open bidding events are usually held early in a term and continue for only two to three weeks to prevent burnout. Events are casual and relaxed and focus on getting to know the rushees on a personal level, along with introducing them to the benefits of membership in Theta.

The Total Impact program features rush teams who plan "no frills" functions, often in conjunction with existing campus or chapter events. These activities are planned for a set group of rushees. A typical week might include a Sunday hamburger cookout, an ice cream outing on Tuesday, and dinner with the chapter on Thursday night. Often bids are extended on Friday night, and then the process repeats itself the following week. Many chapters and rushees find the relaxed atmosphere of COB more appealing than the stress of formal rush. During COB, the true benefits and expectations of membership can be fully explained. The result is members, not just joiners.

The benefits of a successful COB program are many. COB allows collegiate Thetas to continue to seek out the special individuals who could make a difference in their lives, their chapters, and the Fraternity itself. The benefits of increased chapter leadership resources, financial revenue, and campus visibility are truly a win-win situation for all.

In the past few years, a new level of regional officer has enhanced the membership recruitment programs of our chapters. Membership Regional Directors (MRDs) bring vast experience and knowledge about the rush process to their positions. They are prepared to help chapters develop public relations plans, devise rush plans of action, design new themes or party plans, and any other aspect of recruitment.

Chapters needing rush assistance are urged to contact their MRDs. Districts I, VI, XIII: Sheryl McGarity, 352-375-5332; Districts II, III, IV, X, XIV: Patti Westermann, 770-850-1804; Districts V, XII, XV: Cindy Gauf, 703-631-1820; Districts VII, XVI, XVII: Nina Vergari, 805-683-3907; Districts VIII, IX, XI, XVIII: Becky Muller, 415-969-5430.

The future of the Fraternity lies in the continued success of our recruitment process. The Total Impact program is a viable solution to the changing campus environment. In order for it to be successful, however, old attitudes must change.

Alumnae can be supportive by supplying names of women from their communities who are attending universities where we have chapters. We must all encourage non-Greek women to participate in the Greek process and reap the benefits which we all enjoy.

One hundred twenty-seven years ago, our founders did not even dream of a formal rush week. Rather, they joined together for friendship and for support to face the challenges of life on college campuses for women.

These basic reasons for membership in Kappa Alpha Theta have not changed. If we wish to be alive and well in the coming millennium, we must never forget that we are in the friendship arena. Like our founders, we must share the love and support we receive from one another, and we must continue to do it 365 days a year.

If we remain committed to these goals, we can truly make a total impact on our campuses. ■

1997-98 RUSH PERSONNEL DIRECTORY

For a reference letter form and more information about submitting it, see page 29. Send references to a rushee's hometown Rush Reference Board Chairman (RRBC) or Area Rush Representative (ARR). If there is no RRBC or ARR, send references to the chapter at the school the rushee is attending. A state-by-state listing of RRBCs and ARRs begins below and is followed by an alphabetical list of college chapters, rush dates, and names of reference chairmen.

PLEASE NOTE: All information was correct at publication. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by subsequent changes.

Alumnae writing references and needing further information should call Headquarters, 1-800-526-1870. College chapters needing references for specific rushees should call Headquarters for the name of the appropriate state chairman.

1996 Annual Report

✿ Fraternity ✿

I have recently received numerous thank-you notes from 50- and 75-year Thetas for the pansy pin sent to them by the Fraternity in honor of their special anniversary. A wonderful message about our sisterhood is reflected in each of these notes. "The pin is a treasured reminder of those very special days...." "A group of us still meets as often as we can...." "Some of my most cherished memories are of the time shared and relationships made in those college years."

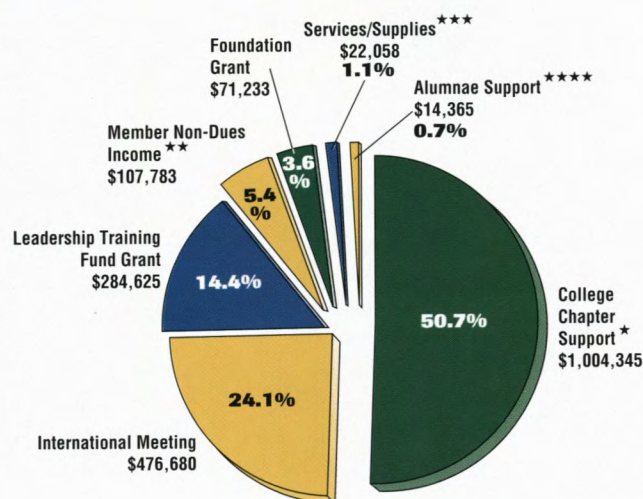

I have appreciated these lovely notes so much for the inspiration they have been to me. They validate my belief that young adults need to learn to be in the relationships that are essential to their maturation process. They need a community where rituals, symbols, and traditions are fostered and valued, and I believe the Theta experience offers these lasting values to all of us. Kappa Alpha Theta is a safe haven for our colleagues and an ongoing source of friendship and support for our alumnae. The Fraternity experience is, indeed, a cherished one.

✿ Foundation ✿

I got on the Internet for the first time in 1996 and knew instantly that this new form of communication is going to change our world. I was in awe as I began to discover the possibilities. Who would have thought just a few years ago that I'd need ANOTHER line in my address book for e-mail!

There is no doubt that the world around us is changing faster than we can keep up. That's why I think Kappa Alpha Theta is so critical to our lives today. We need an anchor—a firm tie to the values that Theta exemplifies. Our commitments to intellectual growth, service to others, and our moral code of love are timeless.

Thank you for your gifts of time, talent, and treasure to Theta. Your generous support to the Foundation last year helped provide scholarships and leadership training, supported the Friendship Fund, and aided abused and neglected children.

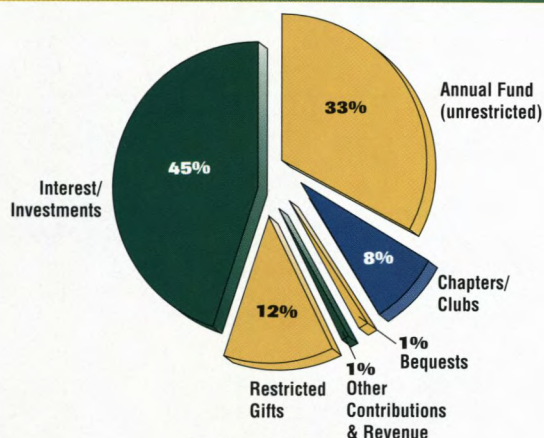

In 1996 your Foundation gifts made a difference in the lives of thousands of Thetas. As Bettie demonstrated 127 years ago, women who come together in support of one another can have a powerful impact on themselves and the world.

Grand Convention 1996

Planning the sixty-second Grand Convention in Asheville, NC, was a major focus of the 1995-96 year. The theme of the five-day Convention was Together We Can Move Mountains. Outgoing President Carryl Krohne began the opening session with a video—"Believe in Theta"—that not only served as inspiration for the entire Convention, but also became a highly effective rush tool for college chapters later in the year.

Opportunities for leadership development included seminars on values and ethics in leadership, skill-building for leaders, learning to anticipate change, conducting successful educational programming, and conflict resolution and negotiating skills.

Delegates at the Convention passed legislation that clarified terms, including the conditions for voluntary and involuntary activity, the convention responsibilities of alumnae chapter presidents, and the membership of special committees. Per capita and installation fees were increased. The Grand Council for 1996-98, including a new president and six vice-presidents, was elected.

The establishment of the Carryl Krohne Trust was announced during Grand Convention 1996. The trust will provide grants or scholarships for alumnae members to gain leadership training and experience to help them in volunteer or career activities in their own communities.

Regional Leadership Conferences

Kappa Alpha Theta officers and staff began planning for an innovative series of leadership conferences to be held in 1997 at eight sites across the country. The Regional Leadership Conferences were designed to provide training in leadership skills, campus relations, and Fraternity programming in a very accessible, timely manner.

LeaderShape

Kappa Alpha Theta continues its partnership with the LeaderShape Institute, an innovative leadership training experience which emphasizes leading with integrity. Seven members attended the week-long course and gained experience and insight into the group problem-solving process. They also interacted with corporate executives who shared their insights into leadership, careers, and values.

Kappa Alpha Theta has seen positive results in chapter management by the presidents who have attended LeaderShape.

Growth

Two new groups were added to the college chapter roll during the year. In November 1995, we welcomed 80 new members into the Fraternity as members of the Zeta Tau Chapter at the University of Delaware. Members of Gamma Mu/Maryland and Epsilon Rho/Lehigh traveled to the Newark, Del., campus to assist with the installation. Many Delaware alumnae were also present.

The Zeta Upsilon Chapter at the University of Texas at Dallas was installed just a few months later. Theta became the second NPC group on this campus by affiliating with a local sorority. Initiation was held at the Beta Sigma/SMU chapter facility. The women of Beta Sigma/SMU and Gamma Psi/Texas Christian assisted with the Pledging, Loyalty, and Initiation Services. Many Texas alumnae helped celebrate this event.

In January, many Thetas braved snow, ice, and thunderstorms to attend the installation of Theta's newest alumnae chapter: Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill in North Carolina. It was the first alumnae chapter installed in six years.

Together Thetas

A new member recruitment/extension campaign, featuring various materials with the theme "Together Thetas," was launched. The theme was chosen because "together" describes the essence of Theta: it implies sisterhood and unity. It's also a word to describe Thetas: intelligence, ability, involvement, balance, style—the Theta woman is definitely together!

Several theme ideas were tested at various college chapters, and "Together Thetas" was the chosen favorite. The new materials were used to promote Theta at the University of Texas at Dallas, where we installed our Zeta Upsilon Chapter, and they provide the basis for our extension presentations.

Member Orientation Survey

To gather more quantitative data from new members of Theta regarding the Member Orientation Program, Theta experimented with a new, high-tech research technique. New members were encouraged to call a toll-free number and participate in a short, interactive voice technology survey. The Education Committee plans to continue its research into this program to ensure its applicability to our new members.

Chapter Finances

Five Finance Regional Directors (FRDs) were appointed to assist college chapters with financial matters, provide financial advice to facility corporations, and consult with collegians and advisers as needed. The structure of the FRDs mirrors the existing regional structure for college chapters.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine

Since 1885, The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine has been a link between Thetas and on the cutting edge of Greek organization publications. In 1995, the Fraternity began an innovative program that helps members maintain their connection with The Magazine while controlling rising production costs.

To reduce the number of magazines printed and mailed each year, members were given a choice in the number of issues they receive annually.

Despite an increase in both paper prices and mailing charges, the Fraternity realized a six percent decrease in printing expenses and an eight percent decrease in postage.

The quality of The Magazine was recognized by the College Fraternity Editor's Association (CFEA). "Fighting the Breast Cancer Battle" (Spring 1995) was awarded first place as a feature article, and "Her Career Is a Dream" (Autumn 1995) was awarded second place as a profile.

CASA

In 1989, Kappa Alpha Theta chose National CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates Association) as its official philanthropy.

A child's voice in court.

As of 1995, the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation has awarded more than $365,000 in grants to CASA. The 1995-97 grant of $120,000 includes funding for public awareness and education materials for volunteers; CASA Awareness Day; CASANET (computer on-line information resource); publications, including The Connection and Speak Up! newsletters for volunteers; the toll-free information resource telephone line; and the Program Director of the Year Award.

In 1996, CASA honored Kappa Alpha Theta's ongoing commitment to helping abused and neglected children with the prestigious President's Award.

Scholarship

During the 1995-96 academic year, 1385 undergraduate members achieved straight As for at least one school term. And in 1995, 65 percent of Theta's college chapters had grade-point averages (GPAs) that exceeded the all-sorority averages (ASAs) on their campuses.

In the autumn 1995 semester, 27 Theta chapters achieved the number-one scholarship ranking on their campuses. In the spring 1996 semester, 21 Theta chapters achieved a number-one ranking.

In 1996, the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation awarded more than $217,000 through 118 undergraduate and graduate scholarships. Awards amounts ranged from $500 to $10,000.

Friendship Fund

The Friendship Fund was established in 1926 to provide financial gifts to Thetas in great need. Two members write on behalf of a sister, and the Friendship Fund committee determines the award amount. The requestors remain anonymous, and all records are confidential.

Most contributions to the Friendship Fund are made through Founders Day gifts. In fiscal 1995-96, $17,110 was contributed to the fund, and $20,500 was granted to recipients. A task force has been formed to evaluate the financial needs and fund-raising strategy of the Friendship Fund.

Focus Group Weekend

An Educational Focus Group Weekend was organized to evaluate current educational programs targeted to our collegians. Twenty-five college women, representing 21 Theta chapters, 18 states, and 15 districts, attended. They rotated into various focus groups to discuss the Balanced Woman series, the Member Orientation Program, scholarship, leadership development, risk management, and recognition. The participants also provided feedback on potential new programs. Feedback from the focus groups brought about changes and enhancements to various programs. For example, chapters who are number one in scholarship on their campuses are recognized through newspaper advertisements.

Talking About Alcohol

Talking About Alcohol (TAA) teaches Thetas how to make low-risk drinking choices. The program offers nonjudgmental, relevant, useful risk-reduction information. The goal of TAA is not simply to increase alcohol awareness but also to provide information needed to avoid alcohol-related health and impairment problems for a lifetime.

During the 1995-96 academic year, 16 college chapters participated in TAA. And for the first time, the program was presented by teams of volunteers rather than by staff facilitators.

Foundation Honored

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation received an award of distinction in the category of best nondirect mail fund-raising effort at the annual Foundations Seminar. The seminar recognizes outstanding programs among men's women's fraternity foundations.

Eating Disorders Awareness

For the past two years, Thetas have participated in helping to increase awareness regarding eating disorders by sponsoring an educational program on their campuses during Eating Disorders Awareness Week. Groups were encouraged to join with other NPC groups to host a guest speaker or an event to educate their peers about eating disorders and increase sensitivity for someone who is afflicted with an eating disorder.

Indicates that a program was partially or fully funded by the Foundation.

Diane Yarberry Wilhite, $\Gamma\Psi$ /Texas Christian; Katherine Vogt, AO /Oklahoma; and Linda Yarberry Vogt, $\text{B}\Sigma$ /Southern Methodist, attended Grand Convention in Asheville, NC. "It was a wonderful experience to share Theta with one another."

THETA

FAMILIES

Thank you to all who submitted photographs of their Theta families. We're sorry that we didn't have room to publish them all. We will continue to publish photos of Theta families in future issues of The Magazine.

Diane Miller Armstrong, $\Gamma\Pi$ /Iowa State; Bev Miller Groth, $\Gamma\Pi$ /Iowa State; Marilyn Miller, P /Nebraska; and Connie Miller Welch, $\Gamma\Pi$ /Iowa State, gathered in Rehoboth Beach, Dela.; for their biennial family reunion. "And Diane's youngest daughter pledged Theta at Iowa."
